Hymnus

Hymn O blest Creator of the light, Who mak'st the day with radiance bright, And o'er the forming world didst call The light from chaos first of all;

Whose wisdom joined in meet array The morn and eve, and named them day: Night comes with all its darkling fears; Regard thy people's prayers and tears.

Lest, sunk in sin, and whelmed with strife, They lose the gift of endless life; While thinking but the thoughts of time, They weave new chains of woe and crime.

But grant them grace that they may strain The heavenly gate and prize to gain: Each harmful lure aside to cast, And purge away each error past.
